Thanks, Hilary.

And please let me know if I need to supply the sample containers if we decide to collect macroinverts.

Hi Eric,

Sorry I haven't had the chance to review the Qapp as promised, I'll attempt to get it done in the next day or two! I should have some alcohol around, but will check to make sure.

Hey Hilary:

I'm still not sure if we're going to sample all macroinvertebrates or just clams and mussels based on some unresolved issues. If we do keep everything, do I need to bring alcohol for preserving the samples and sample containers, or does the lab have those supplies? I intend to bring Ziplocs to store the clams on ice. Please let me know.

Thanks.

Eric
